MONTREAL

Welcome to PS Publishing and the Creative Arts Foundation of Canada. Based in the beautiful and culturally rich city of Montreal, Canada, PS Publishing and the Creative Arts Foundation of Canada have been proudly active in the fields of education, publishing, and the arts for over 10 years.

With a strong commitment to excellence, we have published over 20 books and supported hundreds of students in bringing their voices and visions to life. We work closely with some of the best editors and illustrators in the industry to ensure every project meets the highest creative and professional standards.

PUBLISHING PROCESS

1. Consulting Evaluation

- Evaluation is based on the content of the author's completed manuscript.
- If the work passes the evaluation, a quote will be provided based on the word count, number of pages, cover design, illustrations, and other relevant factors.

2. Contract Signing

- A contract is signed specifying the type of book, expected completion time, and ISBN (International Standard Book Number) assignment.

3. Manuscript Submission

- The author submits the full manuscript to the editorial department.

4. Editorial Review

- The editorial team checks the manuscript and provides a list of suggested revisions.

5. Illustration Review (if applicable)

- Any illustrations accompanying the text are reviewed for quality, relevance, and consistency with the content.

6. Revisions & Communication

- The author and editorial team collaborate to implement revisions.
- This is an iterative process, involving ongoing communication until all necessary changes are made.

7. Final Editorial Check

- A thorough final review is conducted to ensure the manuscript is publication-ready.

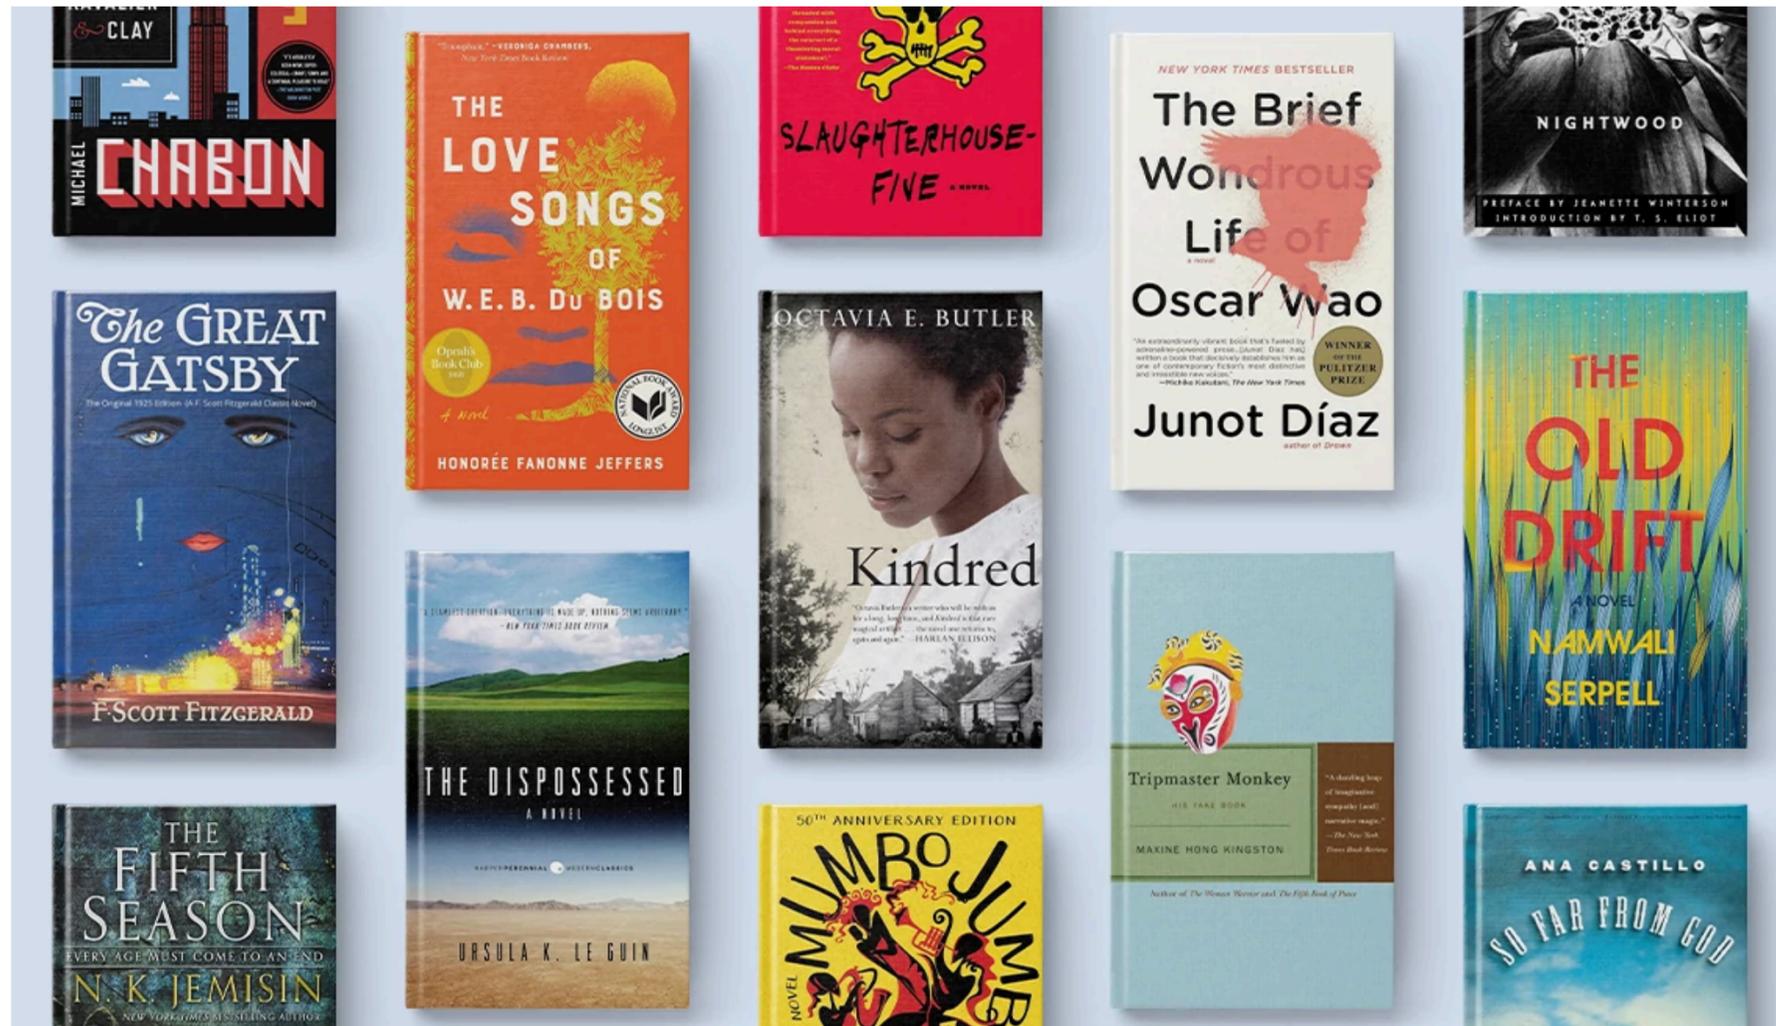

8. Publishing & Printing

- Once approved, the manuscript goes to print, and the publishing process is completed.

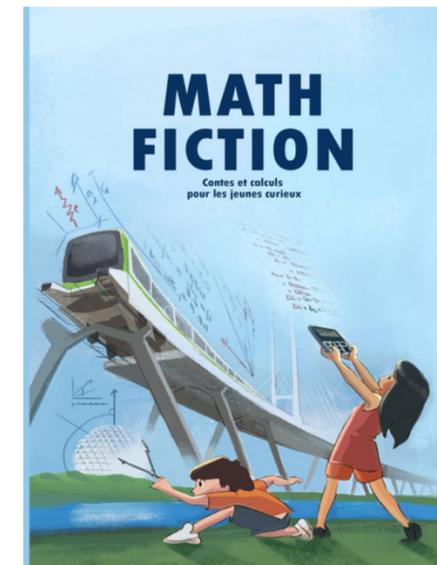

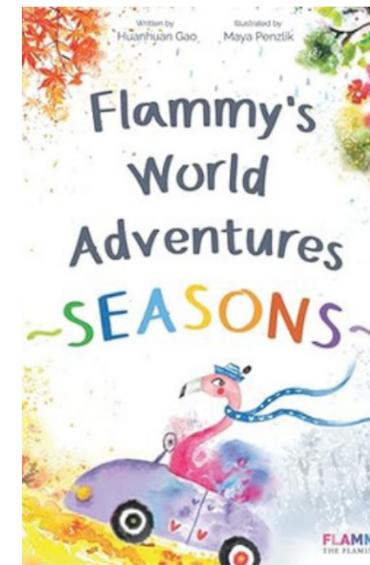

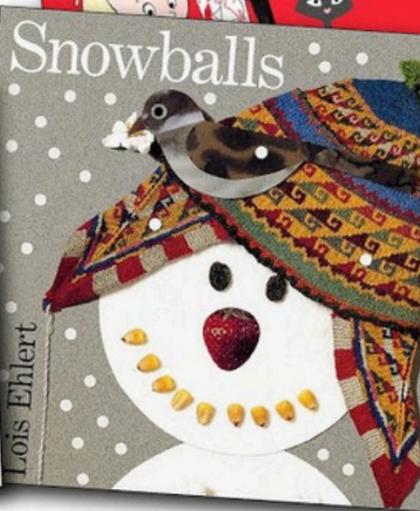

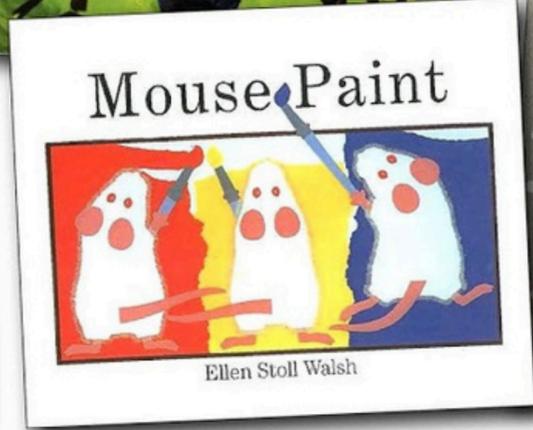

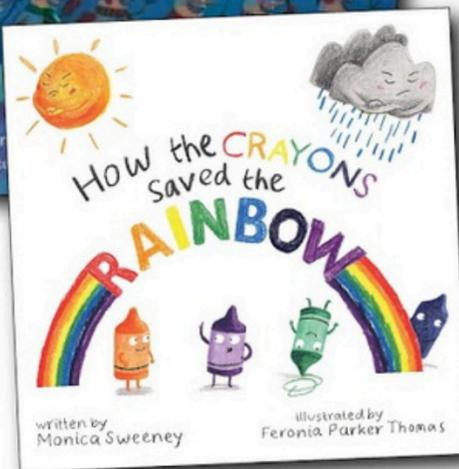

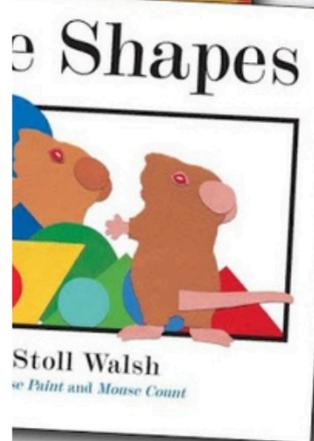

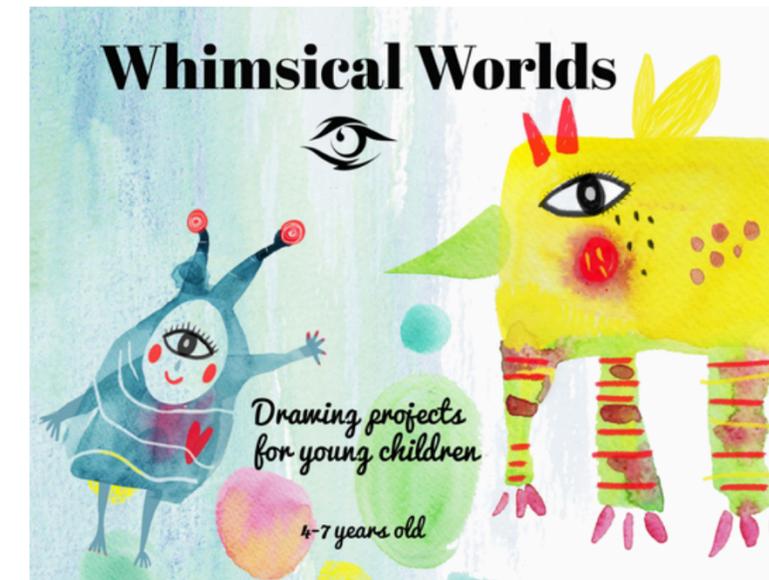

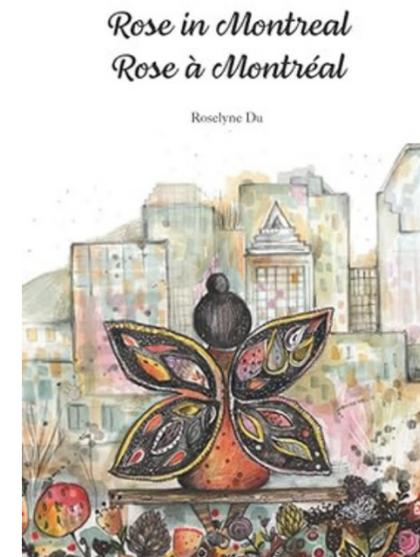

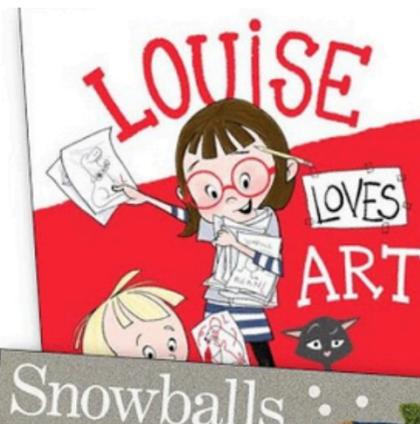

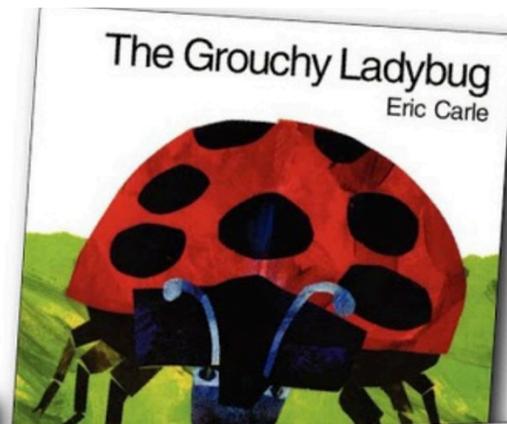

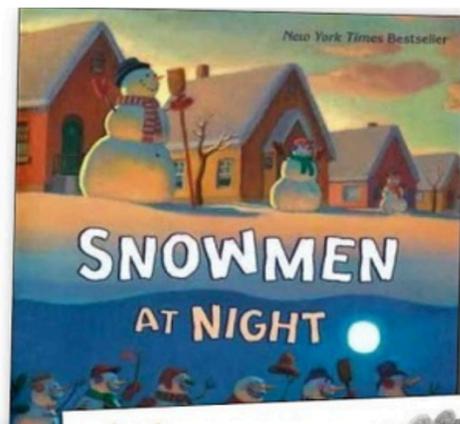

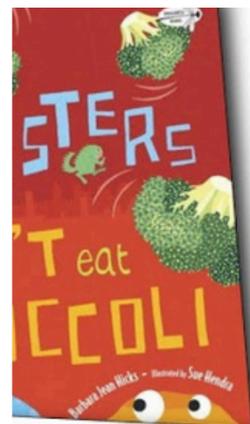

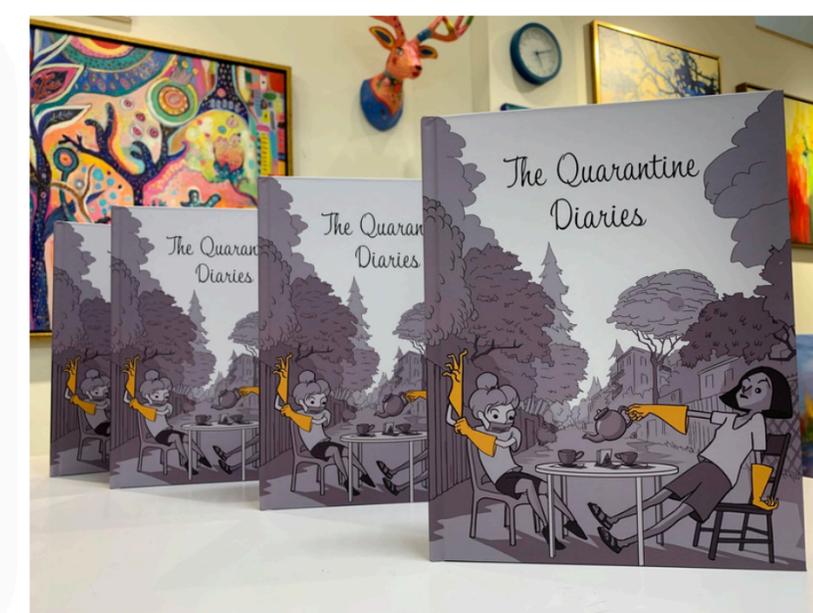

The author retains 100% of the publishing rights to the book.
